3. NC WISE/Enterprise Training Team

Several months ago, the Technology Services Department at NCDPI underwent a re-organization of its departments. From this, the functional application trainers, including AHR, CECAS, HRMS and NC WISE became one team, the Enterprise Training Team.

As a result, the mailbox has changed. Users may still send mail using the old address (ncwisetraining@dpi.state.nc.us) but when they receive a response, mail will come from the Enterprise Training Team mailbox (ETtraining@dpi.state.nc.us).

NC WISE users can still expect the same level of service.

4. Notice: NC WISE Training Presentations to be Removed from NC WISE Web Site

In an effort to ensure that all NC WISE Training materials are in sync and in real time, the Enterprise Training Team will remove all training presentations from the NC WISE Web site. However, the recorded Webinar sessions will still be available.

Those who register for training will receive an updated copy of any materials prior to any event. Removed presentations can still be obtained by contacting the Enterprise Training Team at ETtraining@dpi.state.nc.us.
